NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals, addressed to the city clerk of the city of Cairo, will be received at my office, No. 124 Commercial avenue, until 5 o'clock p. m. of Tuesday, the 13th day of October, 1914, for furnishing the material and doing the work for the construction of a sewer through the Ohio levee at or near Thirty-eighth st. et.

Said sewer is to be constructed according to the plan and specifications furnished by John F. Healey, city engineer, and which plan and specifications are now on file in my office, subject to examination at any time.

The party to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to give a good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of the contract.

The city council reserves the right to reject any and all proposals.

SI-104-106 M. S. COX, City Comptroller.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS.

As five of six have already applied to me to give them lessons, I take this method to say that I will give a limited number of lessons in higher Arithmetic, Book keeping, Algebra, Philosophy, English Grammar, Latin and Greek. Three or four more can be accommodated. Other branches may be pursued if preferred.

107-4 H. B. TRAYER.

MOVED CITY ACCOMMODATION.

Commencing Sunday, October 12th, and continuing Sunday excepted, until Saturday, October 17th, the Mount City accommodation will run, leaving Cairo at 8 a. m. and 5:30 p. m.; leaving Mount City at 8:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m.; to enable parties to attend court and return to Cairo daily. The Wednesday and Saturday runs as heretofore, will be abandoned until October 16th.

THE ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL.—Mr. Wetzels, the enterprising proprietor of the St. Nicholas hotel, enlarged, papered and made other improvements in his office and sample room, and has renovated his house throughout. He will give a grand opening lunch on Thursday—tomorrow evening, and hope to see all his friends present. The lunch he proposes to spread will be the best ever spread in the city.

JOE ROZKEB is now in full control of the Washington bakery, and having learned the wants of the public, is prepared to supply on call all demands for French loaf, Boston, Brown and Graham bread, and everything else ordinarily found in a first-class bakery. He maintains a full stock of confectioneries, and can, as well as any other dealer in the city, fill all orders in that line.

Cakes baked, frosted or ornamented on short notice. Special attention given to the orders of wedding or picnic parties.

SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the M. E. congregation will give their first sociable of the season at the parsonage, on Thursday evening, 8th inst.

RETIRED.—The Sun announces that Mr. Fleming, late local editor of THE BULLETIN, has retired from the position. The Sun has not learned the name of his successor.

THE ST. CHARLES HOTEL has several pleasant rooms on the upper floor, suitable for gentlemen, that can be secured for the winter, with board, at very reasonable rates.

JOB PRINTING.—THE BULLETIN company has received a large quantity of new type, and is now better prepared than ever before to do fine job printing. Our prices are the lowest.

FOR SALE.—BUGGY.—We desire to sell a splendid buggy—almost new. We will sell it at a great sacrifice. Persons desiring a good bargain in a buggy have now an opportunity to obtain one.

A BOY.—Frank Susanka is the father of a son, who made his advent into the world day before yesterday. The boy is a heavy weight; the city scales will be brought into requisition to ascertain how much he weighs.

THE GERMAN SCHOOL society will give a ball on the 26th inst., at John Scheel's Hall. A general invitation is given to all. Full notice, with committee, etc., will be given next week. 312-10-7-4f

"IS HENRY REQUESTED?"—The Sun commands Col. Wood, the Joshua of the Republican central committee, to stand still and take such steps as may be necessary to secure a more perfect organization of the Republican party in Alexander county and success at the polls in November. Exactly.

You will find the latest styles at Elliott & Haythorn's. They are offering dry goods of every description at prices that should command attention.

FAMILY GROCERY.—Albert Grindler has opened a family grocery store on the corner of Center and Walnut streets, opposite the High School building. He will keep all articles usually kept on sale in such stores. He invites the public to give him a call. He will endeavor to make it to the advantage of the people to patronize him.

AN "AND" SHORT.—We wrote: "The Sun professes to be opposed to the civil rights bill and inflation." The printer omitted the "and" from the sentence and made us speak of "civil rights bill inflation." The Sun takes advantage of this mistake, and refuses to answer the question asked: "Does Mr. Clements agree with the Sun in opposing the civil rights bill and inflation?" Is the Sun afraid to answer this question?

SOCIABLES.—The Old-Fellows' sociable last Monday night proved so pleasant and enjoyable that the members of the order have decided to keep sociables up through the winter, throwing open the doors of the hall to their friends once every four weeks. Following their good example, the Patriarchs of Old Encampment are "talking sociable." After them we may expect to hear from the Avalon Knights of Pythias.

MILLINERY, TRIMMING AND FANCY STONE.—Miss Burnside desires to call the attention of the ladies to her full and complete line of millinery and fancy goods just opened in the Athenium building on Commercial avenue. Her stock consists of a full assortment of fall hats, jaspers and patterns, a full line of neophras, all colors, feathers, French flowers, ribbons, and a general assortment of fancy articles, such as are kept in a millinery store. 321-10-7-1m DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL COMMITTEE MEETING.—At a meeting of the Democratic and Liberal Central Committee, held at their rooms on Tuesday evening, October 6th, 1914, Dr. Dan'l Arter was selected as chairman and John H. Gosman appointed secretary. On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet at the office of John Q. Harman, at 7 o'clock p. m. on Saturday next, the 10th inst. It is desirable that a full meeting of the committee and parties interested will then be had. D. ARTER, Chairman.

J. H. GOSMAN, Secretary.

PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY.—Gustave Wetzels' Photographic Art Gallery, (formerly T. T. Thomas), corner Eighth street and Commercial avenue. Everything pertaining to the photographic art skillfully and elegantly executed. The happy combination of a splendid light and the best instruments, enable me to take children's pictures instantaneously. Mothers, give me a trial, if you desire the sweet smile of your cherubs preserved forever. Satisfaction given in every case, or no charge made. My prices are most reasonable. Cartes de visit, $3 per dozen; Gams, six for $1. Call and be convinced. 10-8-4f

R. JONES, fashionable bootmaker, has moved into his new house next to his old stand on Commercial avenue, and assures his friends that he is better than ever prepared to satisfy them in the style, stock, fit, etc., of their boots and shoes. An evidence of his ability to satisfy everybody may be seen in the fact that he is crowded with work, and has been compelled to employ three more first-class workmen. He manufactures every style of boots or shoes and uses only the best of material in all cases, whether making a cow-hide shoe or a pair of the finest French calf boots. Give him a trial. Satisfaction is guaranteed. 308-10-3-2m

THE ATTEMPT of The Sun to induce the Republican managers of the county to nominate a candidate for sheriff will amount to nothing. The people of Alexander county do not much care whether their sheriff is a Republican or a Democrat so that he is a good officer; and that Mr. Ham. Irvin fills the bill in this respect no one will deny. He is universally acknowledged as one of the best sheriffs in the state, and has, during the time he has held the office, spent more money than he made. The board of county commissioners has raised the salary for the next term and made it a "living salary." It is only justice to Mr. Irvin that he should be re-elected, and we are sure he will be. There are hundreds of Republicans in Alexander county who will vote for him if all the Republican conventions in the state should order them not to do so.

PERSONAL.—Henderson, the stove man, is at Cincinnati. Gosman is running his store in his absence. Now is the time to get bargains. Gosman is not used to Henderson's prices, and will sell stoves and other goods at ridiculously low figures, just to be doing business. We bought a mouse trap at half-price Tuesday, and caught a full-priced mouse in thirty seconds after we got it into the house.

MR C W Woodard and Dr. Brigham have gone to the St. Louis fair.

Mr. Walter Hyslop returned yesterday from an extensive trip through Canada and the East.

Mr. William Martin and wife left yesterday for St. Louis, to be absent a week or ten days.

At the St. Charles: C Marchildon, Thomas; S H Haynes, St. Louis; G W Holman and wife, New Orleans; John E Lufkin, Anna, P Gwin, Canton, Miss.

At the Delmonico: Mrs Bethune, Mrs Myrick, Mrs Woods, and Mrs Wahl, of Charleston, Missouri; Dr T A Halliday, and C W Edson, Metropolis; Mrs McConnell, Evansville.

Jack Frost has arrived in the city—a live gentleman of that name, not the very old wretch who is making crisp leaves and grass in more northern latitudes.

Mr. John Hayes, of Pittsburg, Penn., nephew of Mrs John B. Phillips, has, with his wife, been spending a week of their "honeymoon" in Cairo, visiting his relatives. They left on this morning's train for Kansas, taking in St. Louis and the fair on the way.

Judge and Mrs. Bros leave tomorrow for Chicago. They will stop a couple of days by the way, at Chicago, to visit their son, Louis, who is going to school at the Industrial University at that place.

Mr. Inwood, the minority candidate for the legislature, will speak in Cairo before the campaign ends. He is not a slouch at public speaking, by any means. He has often spoke in public on the stage, and knows how to do it.

Phil Howard, Bernard Smith, Mr. Story, of Da Quoin and others, returned yesterday from a hunt, fish, etc., around the lakes in Kentucky. They were so successful that Phil Howard thinks of starting a meat and game store from the proceeds.

Alderman Morris takes to candles. At the meeting of the council his candle burns brighter than that of either of the other fellows. He has caught the contagion from Nellis, and hates gas.

Capt. J. M. Phillips, who was in attendance upon the steamboatmen's convention at St. Louis, believes the convention was a good thing, and that his deliberations will result to the advantage of those who go down and up the river in great boats.

Capt. Wetzels, of the St. Nicholas hotel, is walking to the front in the "mine host" business of Cairo. He is one of the most genial of gentlemen. To-night, at 9 o'clock, he will spread a fine lunch, to partake of which he invites all his friends. Just by way of variety he will have on hand Milwaukee beer.

D. T. Liniger, Esq., formerly a prominent Radical, has soured on the party. He refuses to make more than one or two speeches in the canvass, and then will make easy ones. We are anxious to arrange for a joint discussion between Dave and Mr. Clements; but Munn says it will never do.

Mr. Davis, of the Sun, will canvass Union and Jackson counties with Mr. Clements. Mr. Davis will pray and denounce the civil rights bill, and Mr. Clements will sing and praise it. In this way, Mr. Pope believes the entire vote of the Republican party can be obtained for his candidate, and the postoffice thus secured to his friends.

C. Winston, Esq., our candidate for the legislature, will visit Jackson county in a few days and shake hands with his to-be constituents. Col. Winston makes friends wherever he goes, and we are sure that, if he will only "mix" with the people in Jackson and Union, he will get a very large vote—a vote that will be highly complimentary to him, and conclusive proof of his popularity.

The gentle, genial and pious Max Roller has again, with his little bellows in his hand and his fair round paunch before him, taken his departure from the city on another piano-tuning tour. He plays the music of the future and tells inimitable anecdotes in indifferent English. He is Willie Collins' Count Foco, or there is no music in a piano. We pine for him.

Rev. J. A. Maier, of the Evangelical Association, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Maier has been located, for the past two years, at Mount Carmel, Illinois, and is spoken of by the papers of that place as "an earnest Christian gentleman." He has been assigned to the Cairo and Mount Zion Mission of his church. He preaches in the German language, and will deliver his first sermon in this city next Sunday night, in the Christian church, Eighteenth street. He invites all German-speaking people to hear him.

J. W. McCartney, Esq., of the Metropolitan Times, called upon us yesterday. Mac is one of the "live" men of Southern Illinois, and if he does not become too intensely Democratic will make his mark yet. He has already gone past us in politics and is nearly abreast with our most ultra Bourbon; but, we hope he can be persuaded to consider his condition with calmness, and not take the first step. At this time his aversions in politics are Ferrell and Jones, and he is giving them the devil with a vim.

While apathy prevails among the members of the Opposition party in Cairo, we have observed with pleasure that Mr. J. R. Cunningham is an exception to this rule. He is anxious to get into the fray, and will work like a beaver, as the saying is, when in. He has expressed to us his willingness to visit every house in the county and work for Hartzell morning, noon and night. Mr. Cunningham, a law student in the office of Judge Mulkey, on the stump would be a power, as all will agree who have listened to his jury arguments, surprising oratorical productions of so young a lawyer.

BOARDING.—Parties desiring boarding and lodging, or day board, in a private family, near the business part of the city, can be accommodated by calling at the two-story white frame dwelling in rear of Bros' building on 11th street. 314-10-6-3f

LOOK OUT FOR BARAGAINS.—Mr. A. Marx has just returned from New York, where he purchased one of the finest and largest stock of clothing, gent's furnishings, goods, hats, etc., of the very latest style, which he will sell LOWER than the lowest. All goods marked in plain figures. 275-9-24-f

LUMBER STILL GOING DOWN.—As we are determined to close out our stock speedily, preparatory to winding up business, we will sell all kinds of lumber at two dollars per thousand less than market prices. A large lot of lath and stove wood on hand, which will be sold at correspondingly low rates. WALL & ENT. 321-9-24-f

LUCKY EVERY DAY.—George Latimer corner of Fourteenth and Washington avenues, will furnish heretofore, every day to his patrons a No. 1 lunch, between the hours of ten and twelve o'clock. Fresh Milwaukee beer and fragrant Havana cigars to be had at his bar at all times. 9-25-14

Mrs. HULZ has just returned from the east with a full stock of millinery goods and ladies' misses' and children's shoes; also, a large stock of ladies' hair switches, and goods belonging to the millinery trade, such as, hosiery, etc., with a large lot of notions, which she will sell cheaper than any other place in Cairo. Store on the corner of Eleventh street and Washington avenue. 265-9-22-4f

CITY COUNCIL.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, CAIRO, ILL., October 6th, 1914, 7:30 P. M.

Present.—His Honor, Mayor Wood and Aldermen McEwen, McGauley, Morris, Nellis, Thistlewood and Wright—6.

On motion of Alderman Wright the minutes of preceding meetings were approved without reading.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STREETS.

The report of the committee on streets, recommending that certain portions of Fourteenth, Walnut, Fifteenth, Cedar, and Sixteenth streets, be filled, and that the same be done by special assessment, which was laid over at last meeting, was presented.

Alderman McEwen moved to adopt said report, except to strike out that portion recommending that said filling be done by special assessment. Motion lost by the following vote:

Ayes—McEwen and Wright—2.

Nays—McGauley, Morris, Nellis and Thistlewood—4.

Alderman Morris moved that the recommendation of the committee be concurred in. Lost by the following vote:

Ayes—Morris, McGauley and Thistlewood—3.

Nays—McEwen, Nellis and Wright—3.

Said report was, thereupon, on motion of Alderman Wright, referred back to the committee on streets.

The report of the committee on streets, on the petition of sundry residents and property holders on Sixth street, between Washington Avenue and Walnut street, requesting the council to have said street filled, which was laid over at last meeting of the council, was presented, and on motion of Alderman McEwen, laid upon the table.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLAIMS.

The committee on claims reported back the petition of F. E. Dietrich for remission of fine, recommending that the prayer of the petitioner be granted. The chair stated that under the new charter, the council had no power to remit fines, and declared said petition out of order. (Alderman Halliday and Walder appeared in their seats.)

REPORTS OF CITY OFFICERS.

Monthly reports of the following named officers were presented, and on motion of Alderman Halliday, received and ordered filed, viz:

Of B. F. Blake, city treasurer, and of Daniel McCarthy, city jailer, for September, and of police magistrates F. Bros and J. J. Bird, for August.

Report of City Comptroller Cox on outstanding scrip. The city comptroller submitted a report on amount of scrip issued, and for what purpose, from the 1st of May to the 30th of September, which was, on motion of Alderman Wright, received and ordered filed. Said report is as follows:
